

WILDERNESS WINS NATIONAL HANDICAP AT LAUREL--SARAZEN BEATS HAGEN

R. T. WILSON COLT CAPTURES FEATURE BY TWO LENGTHS

Bluffer Provides Surprise by Taking Annapolis Handicap.

By FRANK HARTIG.
R. T. Wilson's chestnut colt, Wilderness, was returned the winner of the National Handicap, the first of Maryland's big fall stake events for 2-year-olds, over a field of fourteen juveniles at Laurel Park yesterday.

Going to the post with Walter J. Salmon's Vigil, the pair were made overwhelming choices by the players.

From the start Wilderness nosed to the front but only to the first turn, when J. S. Coaden's Dunlin, with Carol and L. H. all came up to Wilderness to race in a bunch to the half-mile post, when Lilt, owned by Commander J. K. L. Ross, went to the front to lead the bunch to the home stretch.

Wilderness Wins Feature.

Coming down the home stretch, Jockey McNeill, astride Wilderness, elected to go to the outside of the track. Under severe urging the colt responded and by the time the sixteenth pole was reached the race was won, for Wilderness was running well along, while Dunlin, striding, while Lilt had dropped back. The winner was ahead at the finish by two lengths, although Dunlin was coming with a rush in the last few yards.

Scribble, which broke badly from the start, made a grand finish by just nosing out Lilt for show.

The second important race of the day was the Annapolis Handicap, for 2-year-olds and upward at a mile and a furlong, which was won by Bluffer, which was not figured in the race by the race formers.

Blazes took the lead from the barrier and led all the way to the last turn when he dropped back. Bluffer, Exodus and Captain Alunch together turning the last turn for home, with Bluffer, which was running like a race horse, assumed the lead and held Exodus safe. Bluffer's lead was maintained throughout the two leaders in the last few yards, closed with a rush to take show money.

Ten Jumpers Start.

Ten jumpers started in the Annapolis Handicap, with the Green Tree Stable entry, Blazes and Damask, the big favorites. Halliwell rushed to the front from the start and was leading the field by four lengths the first time around.

Coming around the last turn, Halliwell, which was jumping stoutly, shook off Wrack Grass, which was coming good back, but last fence, when he made a bad landing, but managed to hold up and finished in place one length ahead of Earlicker.

McNicker, the favorite, won the first race in easy fashion.

Callahan sent the Greentree Stable youngster out in front after the first turn, and sprinted into a long lead at the three-quarter mile post, leading by five lengths and held the opposition safe throughout the rest of the journey.

Seawater, Aroon finished gamely and outstayed Woodrow at the end to take place money. Latter showed a good effort but weakened in the last furlong.

Dresden Takes Third.

William Fenwick's chestnut mare, Dresden, ran a smashing race in the third event and managed to earn a well-deserved victory over War Mask in the last sixteenth.

Moody took the lead from the start and led to the half-mile post, when War Mask, Dresden and War Victor all closed up in a bunch. Dresden, which was under steady restraint in the early racing, was carried wide at the first turn in the home stretch, but moved up stoutly and gradually forged into the lead, to win by a length.

War Mask faltered when the leader challenged, but raced Moody into submission to take place money.

Moody, which displayed early speed, was far from being a pushover, but managed to outlast Clean Gone and took show by a nose.

This race formers were given a setback when Careful, the favorite, was left at the post in the sixth event.

Hildur, showing excellent speed, raced to the front at the first turn, never being headed, to win by two lengths.

On Watch, which was trailing the leader, never could get to him and took place money from Calamity Jane, which just lasted to stall off Tipitty Wither for show by a nose.

In the last race of the day, the done was upset again, when Moon won over Clansman, the favorite.

Breaking into the lead from the barrier, Doughnut led all the way to the last turn, coming in the stretch, when Moon, which was saving ground in the early part of the race, went to the outside of the leader with Clansman close behind, passing Doughnut in the last fifty yards.
